2014 is a year of anniversaries. George Bayntun established his first bindery in Northumberland Place in Bath in 1894 (120 years ago). In 1939 (75 years ago) we moved into our present premises in Manvers Street and incorporated the bindery of Robert Rivière & Son, which had started in Bath in 1829 (185 years ago). 50 years ago a young Penny Cox came to work in the front shop, and was followed in the same year by Julie Grayshan. They are still with us, as is Derek Harris who began in the bindery in 1947 and was trained by Ernest Stone, who started with George Bayntun in 1894. Edward Bayntun-Coward joined the family firm in 1994 and is a very proud proprietor.

Boxes and Slipcases

From fragile manuscripts to modern first editions, our boxes and slipcases provide an ideal way to protect books and papers. All of our cases are made by hand, using goatskin (morocco) or calf leather and the finest quality book cloth. They can be lined with marbled paper, suede, or felt.

We offer custom-made slipcases (open-fronted boxes which leave the spine of the book visible) and drop-over boxes, which afford greater protection against the environment. Please contact us for a quotation.
